What Is NAHS To Us?

Each year about the time of commencement and the ending of the school year, a great many of us find ourselves asking "What is NAHS to us?" And, for the most part, we have a somewhat difficult time in arriving at a definite answer to our question.

NAHS is many things. First and foremost it is education; it is also people. It is events and play and work. NAHS is friendship, and it is the familiar coupled with the unexplored. Yes, NAHS is all these things; yet most important, perhaps, NAHS is us!

Aside from its fundamentals such as classes, activities, and daily routine, NAHS is the little things that cause a lump in the throats of the graduating seniors and a swell in the chests of the underclassmen. The little things that have given our school its own place in our lives.....the first day of high school.....flood-lit NAHS on a big night.....assemblies.....our team.....the reverberating tones of someone practicing on the organ long after the last bell.....the cheering sections.....our own radio station.....trips to the Annex .....the marching band.....early morning classes.....lunch in the cafeteria.....yellow admits.....and so many little things that only we will remember.

It is impossible for us to answer the question of what NAHS means to you; however, we have attempted in the 1950 Senior Blotter to record all the many elements of NAHS that you will want to remember from your most memorable school year.

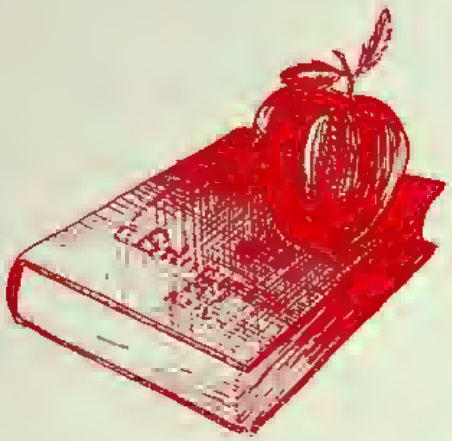
NAHS IS



Education

..... that elusive yet easily recognized goal which we have been seeking, but shall never find.....for as we near it, it moves yet further into the distance.....but we recognize that our years at NAHS have not been wasted. We have learned many things.....from our books and from our friends. We have explored and found a deeper insight into the complexity of life, and we have achieved a fuller realization of our individual place in this demorratic society.

We cheered together, laughed together, and complained together.....sometimes, we cried together..... but banded together we were NAHS.

Headliners

Staffs of The Blotter went from one of the smallest during the first semester to the largest during the second semester to ever publish the school newspaper. During the second semester two separate staffs were organized and each staff published The Blotter on alternate weeks. However, all staffs succeeded in fulfilling the purposes of the paper. They found their work a training course in newspaper work, did creative writing, and kept students informed of the activities and organizations in school. They also interpreted the school to the community.

Published bi-weekly the first semester and weekly the second semester, a total of twenty issues of The Blotter was printed during the school year. Climaxing the first semester's subscription drive the "Blotter Varieties of 1949" was presented in the auditorium for subscribers. The annual senior-faculty basketball game ended the second semester subscription campaign. Journalism "N's" were given at the annual journalism dinner.

Members of the staffs attended the Indiana High School Journalism Institute at Indiana University, the Indiana High School Press Association meeting at Franklin College, the National Scholastic Press Association conference at Chicago, and the Butler University High School Journalism Field Day.

Here's Your Program Sir

The Reporters Club continued during the second year of its organization with the objective of giving freshmen, sophomores, and juniors opportunity to write for the high school newspaper.

Purposes of the club are to develop the creative writing ability of those students interested in collecting material and preparing it for publication in The Blotter and to give members of the club an insight into the journalistic profession.

Since members of the club worked under the direction of The Blotter staffs, no officers were elected. During club meetings members of the club discussed and studied the various types and styles of stories found in the school newspaper.

The major project sponsored by the club was the sale of official programs for all home football and basketball games. Proceeds from program sales are used to send NAHS journalists to state and national journalism conferences.

Program salesmen for the year were Martha Riley, Geraldine Collins, Patricia Jackson, Robert Tenney, and Kenneth Walts. Mr. Robert B. Johnson is sponsor of the club.

Our Literary Geniuses

The Writers Club is another of the New Albany Senior High School clubs to be organized, for the first time, just this year. The club has as its purpose the creation of better writing ability among those students interested in writing.

Sponsored by Miss Naomi J. Kirk, the club has its weekly meetings on Tuesday. During club meetings the different types of writing were discussed. These discussions included the various forms of poetry and prose.

Writing form was also taught to the members of the club by Miss Kirk. Also, during club periods the students tried their skill at all types of writing, alternated with talks and discussions of famous writers and their different styles of writing.

One of the club's activities was selling candy after school. In this way, they financed their club projects.

The Writers Club offers not only the opportunity for enjoyment but also the means by which students can develop a life-long hobby. Also, through this club, students can be taught to appreciate good writing even though they, themselves, may never become great writers.

Requirements of the club are few. A student must be either a senior or a junior and must have a serious desire to learn more about writing.

Officers elected for the year were Shirley Shine, president; Barbara Reisert, vice-president; and Virginia Nale, secretary-treasurer.

ROW ONE: Patricia Neely, Joyce Lamke, Joan Tiemeyer, Patricia Striegel, Bobetta Kessinger.

We, the People, Speak

The Student Council of New Albany High School was first organized in 1943 with the purpose to act as the voice of the student body.

One of its most prominent activities this past year was sponsoring the magazine drive. Through these sales a concert grand piano and an electric organ have been purchased for the school.

Another on its list of activities was the information bureau established at the sectional basketball tournament to inform visiting schools of local restaurants. In addition, the Student Council was responsible for the school's outdoor decorations at Christmas.

Members of the Student Council, composed of one representative from each home room, met twice each month on Wednesday. Besides business, the club discussed ways of improving the appearance of the school and means by which the students might become better acquainted.

The Student Council Executive Board, made up of the four officers, the sponsors, two seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman, met twice each month. At the executive meetings, various members' ideas for improving the school were presented and discussed.

Each member of the Council made a report on projects discussed at the meetings to members of his home room. The students then gave their opinions of these new ideas, and in turn, the representative carried back the decision of his home room to the Council.

The club's sponsors are Mrs. Jessie Beard Long and Mr. C. Gordon Raney. Officers for the year were: Joseph Burke, president; Paul Poff, vice-president; Paula Lewis, secretary; and Maryetta McMurray, treasurer.

O' Speakers, Dear, We Honor Thee

Did you see those cute little green and white hats with the S on the top flitting by every Thursday? Yes, they belonged to the Speakers.

Mrs. Patricia Diedrich, club sponsor, reviews projects sponsored by Speakers during the year with presidents Freda Ann Weber and Mary True Scharf.

The Speakers Club was organized in 1912 by Miss Rose Rudin and had 23 members. Miss Naomi J. Kirk was sponsor of the club for 20 years. This year it consisted of 31 girls, sponsored by Mrs. Patricia Diedrich.

As the oldest girls' organization at NAHS, the Speakers were proud to maintain their chief purposes: to encourage public speaking, sponsor school programs, conduct social affairs, and help the underprivileged.

This year the Speakers initiated a "Speakers' Sitter Service", sold candy after school, and sold very clever gray and red plastic-coated book covers.

They also had other activities such as assisting with the Thanksgiving program by showing scenes of an old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner through a large gilt picture frame at the Thanksgiving program. They presented, as usual, the Christmas play, "A Red Rose for Christmas," and also, as has been the custom for the past twenty six years, Santa Claus was

The club also participated in the Speaker-Wrangler Cup Contest. Another special project was to give short talks explaining the work of the Mobile Unit of the Tuberculosis Association to organizations who asked that the program be clarified to their members.

The first semester officers were: president, Freda Weber; vice-president, Mary True Scharf; secretary, Betty Winter; treasurer, Louise Hobbs; and student critic, Doris Roberts.

Wranglers Today, Statesmen Tomorrow

The Wrangler Club is one of the oldest clubs of NAHS since it was organized in 1910 by Mr. H. B. McLinn, former superintendent of schools. Mr. Marvin V. Oakes assumed sponsorship of the club in 1942 and has sponsored the club since that time excepting for the three years he was in the service.

Robert Temple, Donald Sodrel, Joseph Burke, Bruce Ballard, and Russell Baker present the history and activities of Wranglers over WNAS.

The purposes of the Wrangler Club are to promote public speaking, discussions, debates, and to participate in any worthy function of the school or community.

Membership of this club consists of not more than twenty-five male students of the New Albany Senior High School. Members are chosen from the senior, junior, or sophomore classes, and membership is limited to students who have maintained an average of an A or B in English and social science courses.

The Wranglers helped sponsor, and members of the club participated in, the Speakers-Wrangler Cup Contest this spring. The contest, consisting of students making a speech on some phase of social science, was presented before the student body during a special assembly.

The annual Spring Formal at the Country Club, March 31, was a special event in the club's yearly program. The club also sponsored a "Wrangler" pep

The Wrangler Club was the first club to participate in the WNAS series of programs, Opportunities Unlimited. Members of the club told their radio audience the history of the club, activities, and purposes of the club.

A Credit To Their Community

The New Albany High School Senior Hi-Y Club has chosen as its specific purpose the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y slogan which is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

The club's general purpose was the extension of good citizenship throughout the student body of the high school. The club met on Tuesday, and during the club meetings members discussed the various ways in which they might bring about their dual purposes.

Representatives of the club attended the fall district meeting of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs at Scottsburg, Indiana, and also the spring district meeting at Madison, Indiana.

Good Deeds Mark Their Way

The Alpha Beta chapter of Tri-Hi-Y was organized in October, 1949 under the leadership of Miss Etelka Rockenbach. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain; and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

Objectives of the club are to seek, to find, and to share. This chapter of Tri-Hi-Y is open only to freshman and sophomore girls.

The Alpha Betas were a very active group of girls during the school year. They cooperated with the Omega chapter in selling food guards and clothespins, had a clothing shower for a grade school girl, donated baskets of food to several needy families, and sent pencils to Miss Primrose Hockey in England for her school pupils.

In addition to all these charitable activities, they had a Christmas party, following which they caroled at various places throughout the city. Their other social activities of the year included a skating party, a dinner in Louisville, Kentucky, and a picnic. The club was also represented at all the district Tri-Hi-Y meetings.

Officers for the year were Jolene Daily, president; Marilyn Schaffer, vice-president; Janet Sandbach, secretary; Dolores Archer, treasurer; Marie Schlenk, chaplain; Doris Shaffer, sergeant-at-arms; and Nancy Shivel, historian. Miss Etelka Rockenbach is the chapter sponsor.

We Are The Girls of Tri-Hi-Y

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community higher standards of Christian character is the chief purpose of the Alpha Chapter of Tri-Hi-Y. "To seek, to find, to share" has been their motto ever since the organization of the club in 1944 by Miss Elva Lou Rockenbach. Miss Ruth Braeutigam, the present sponsor, took over the leadership in 1947.

The Alphas helped the needy at Christmas, contributed very generously to the March of Dimes and the World Youth Fund, supplied the school with Tri-Hi-Y calendars, and during the first semester installed the Alpha Beta Chapter. They also went caroling at Christmas, had a special activity each month, and maintained a checkroom on the first floor during the basketball season. The money they received was used largely for charitable purposes.

The officers of this club, composed of junior and senior girls, were: president, Mary Margaret Shoup; vice-president, Patricia Hillen; secretary, Mary Jo Funk; treasurer, Beverly Blake; chaplain, Maryetta McMurray; historian, Elizabeth Lorch; publicity agent, Mary K. Strack; and marshal, Joyce Williams.

Builders Of A Better World

Pure thoughts, pure words, and pure deeds combined with good fellowship are the objectives of the Omega chapter of Tri-Hi-Y.

The club, limited to freshman and sophmore girls, has as its purpose to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

Among the club's yearly social activities were an initiation party, an installation dinner, a Christmas party, and a reception for the mothers of members and the club sponsors. Members also assisted in the organization of the Alpha Beta chapter of Tri-Hi-Y.

The list of special activities of the club included furnishing baskets of food for needy families, contributing to the March of Dimes, and aiding the local American Legion Auxiliary in the sale of poppies.

The club's fund projects consisted of checking coats at home basketball games and selling food guards and clothes pins.

Officers of the year were: Sharon Weber, president; Barbara Craycroft, vice-president; Ann Biggs, secretary; Marilyn Longest, treasurer; Maryln Bennett, sergeant-at-arms; Jean Williams, historian; and Patsy Breen, chaplain. From Pastels To Puppets

Providing fellowship among students who have a serious interest in art is the purpose of the Art Club. Members of the club achieve this purpose through both their social activities and working together on group projects during club meetings.

This past year, as one of their annual projects, the Art Club decorated the halls and offices of the school at Christmas time. Following a Currier and Ives theme, they used the 1860 period as a basis for all their decorations.

Members of this club thoroughly believe that "all work and no play" can be extremely dull; so to offset any possibility of dullness, they have engaged in many social activities during the year. The most interesting of these was a surrealistic Halloween party where each member masqueraded as a figment of his own imagination.

During the spring semester, the club members chose as their chief occupation the making of craft projects. Club time found these art students creating lamps, tiles, pottery, and many other useful and attractive articles.

An A or B average in art courses must be made and maintained by upperclassmen interested in belonging to the club.

Officers for the school year were: president, Margaret Gohmann; secretary, George Engle; and treasurer, Stewart Roche. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Virginia Biggerstaff.

Hold That Smile, Please

The promotion of better picture taking and development of a recreational or vocational interest in photography are the purposes of the Photography Club.

Organized in 1948, the objectives of the club are to provide a stimulus for superior craftsmanship in the field of photography and to further interest in a worthwhile hobby for teenagers.

The major activity of the club during the school year was the organization of a high school photography contest for New Albany high school students. The club also acted as local representative of the Eastman Kodak National High School Photographic Awards Contest. Members of the club submitted entries in these contests.

A special project of the club was a club picture contest open only to members. Members displayed their prize photographs and then the club voted to decide the outstanding picture.

During club meetings members discussed dark room techniques, the use of light meters, various makes of cameras, and other phases of photography of interest to photographers.

Officers of the year were Danny Di Salvo, president; Richard Wheeler, vice-president; and Nancy Condra, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Delbert Brown is sponsor of the club.

Strike Up The Band

The New Albany High School Concert Band under the direction of A. Fielder Myers, ranks top among the high school bands of Indiana. The 1949-50 year has been one of many activities for the band. In addition to the athletic games and its annual winter and spring concerts, the band journeyed to Indianapolis, Indiana, to play for the Indiana State Teachers Association, to French Lick, Indiana, for the State Parents-Teachers Association Convention, and to Shawnee High School in Louisville, Kentucky, for a joint concert with the Shawnee band.

A large group of students from the band participated in the district and state music contests where they received many awards for their outstanding musicianship.

Every other Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock the band presented a radio program over radio station WNAS. The second annual New Albany Band Camp was held at Camp Bedford, Indiana, a week before school started last fall.

The band forms the school's initials as one of their many formations on the football field.

They Sang Our Song

Mr. Robert E. Carter, director of the Concert Choir, as he appears to members of the choir.

"Start off the day with a song" might well be the motto of all members of the Concert Choir. Every morning from 9:30 to 10:25 o'clock the combined voices of eighty-seven students under the direction of Mr. Robert E. Carter were heard ringing throughout the halls of the school.

The purposes of the club are to promote good singing for as many students as possible and to enjoy music through active participation. Other purposes are to gain poise and stage presence by appearances in concerts before students and the general public.

The activities of this organization are numerous. More than thirty of the members participated this year in district and state music contests and received numerous awards for their excellence in vocal music.

During the Thanksgiving season a musical program was given for the student body by the Choir and the Speakers Club. Soon after this, the choir presented a Christmas Concert with the Concert Band. Many recordings were made by the choir throughout the year for use on student broadcasts of radio stations WNAS-FM and WGRC.

For the first time, music "N's" were given this year to choir members who met a high standard of achievement in the organization.

The Concert Choir reaches its highest goal each spring when it participates in the Valley Choral Festival. This year the festival was held at Vevay, Indiana, and eighty members of the organization attended. Members of the choir also sang in the all-state chorus at the State Teachers Association meeting in Indianapolis, Indiana, last fall.

A popular trio chosen from Concert Choir members was Betty Crawford, Paula Lewis, and Joyce Appleby who were accompanied by Harriet Scribner, also a choir member.

Their Melodies Linger On

To bring good music to the student body and the public of New Albany is the objective of Bel Canto. Founded 25 years ago, it is one of the oldest and most popular clubs at New Albany High School. The purpose is to give girls of high school age, who are outstanding singers, a chance to participate in active choral groups.

Membership into Bel Canto is by tryout only. Candidates for membership are recommended to the club and are selected by tryouts each year.

At Christmas time the girls, in their new white robes, caroled through the halls of NAHS. They also caroled at many of the elementary schools and for several hospitals. Their big feature of the year was their George Gershwin show given May 3. The girls repeated this show at Fort Knox and Nichol's hospitals.

The highlight of the club's social activities was their annual spring dance.

The first semester officers were: president, Paula Lewis; vice-president, Leslie Ann Fess; treasurer, Betty Crawford; secretary, Doris Anne Roberts; and publicity, Patricia Whittinghill.

Second semester officers were: president, Paula Lewis; vice-president, Leslie Ann Fess; treasurer, Betty Winter; secretary, Doris Anne Roberts; and publicity, Betty Crawford. Eleanor Kiel was sergeant-at-arms both semesters. Mr. Robert Carter is the club sponsor.

From Krupa To Koussevitzky

If one were to stand in the hall outside room 304, meeting room of the Music Appreciation Club, he might hear anything from crew-cut modern to long-hair classical music. For in fulfilling the main purpose of the club, Mr. Howard Wyne, club sponsor, chooses musical selections that will aid in promoting an interest in all forms of musical compositions.

Organized just this year, the Music Appreciation Club is one of the newest clubs of NAHS. It was founded through the requests of students to have a club where they might learn more about music. The club is limited to twenty members, but it is open to all students who have a serious interest in improving their knowledge of music.

After each musical number was played, club members held a round table discussion where they gave their own interpretation of the composer's idea behind his work. They also discussed the listening qualities of each number they heard.

Upon agreement of all club members, modern jazz compositions were excluded from the club programs and the majority of numbers played were contrasting modern and classical compositions.

Officers of the year were Joseph Donan, president; Donald Pace, vice-president; and Barbara Colwell, secretary-treasurer.

A Bunch Of Bookworms

Purposes of the Readers Club are to promote and develop the literary interests of its members as well as to help all students have a better understanding of books. The objective of the club is to encourage its members to read books on an increasingly mature level.

The club was first organized in 1943 by Mrs. Catherine Lucas; however, Miss Olleta Tyler assumed its sponsorship in 1948. The club has its own library of more than one hundred and fifty books from which members may select their reading material; although members are also encouraged to select classical and popular volumes from the school and public libraries

During club meetings members gave reviews of books they had read, after which all members of the club discussed these books. Debates on the literary merits of various books were also given. The majority of the time, though, club periods were devoted to pleasure reading in order that members might have time to actually read for pleasure alone.

Officers for the year were: Donald Harrington, president; Dolores Banet, vice-president; Jean Fertig, secretary, and Beatrice Banet, treasurer.

This Is WNAS-FM

"This is WNAS-FM the broadcast transmitter of the New Albany City Schools; the station owned and operated by and for the boys and girls of New Albany." This is a statement familiar to the students in Radio Workshop for it is the station's slogan and opens each day's broadcast.

The New Albany School City is very proud of this new station since it was the first low power FM station in public schools in the United States. It is unique in the fact that it is operated entirely by students under the supervision of two faculty members.

The first program to go over WNAS was the graduation exercises in 1949. On October 1, 1949, WNAS went on the air for one hour, five days a week. Beginning the second semester, it lengthened its broadcast time to an hour and forty-five minutes each school day.

In addition to the thirty-five regularly scheduled broadcasts over WNAS, the Radio Workshop is responsible for the writing and broadcasting of "Hi-Time" over station WGRC, Louisville, Kentucky, and "Teen Time" which is aired on WLRP, New Albany.

The goals of WNAS are improvement of speech, improvement of instruction, and promotion of public relations.

Last spring eighteen junior students were selected because of their special abilities to be members of the Radio Workshop. These abilities were announcing, writing scripts, operating equipment, and producing programs.

Mr. Marvin Oakes, director of radio production, and Mr. Vernon McKown, director of audio-visual instruction, are the supervisors of the workshop.

Next Week - East Lynne

Thespians, one of the most progressive clubs at NAHS, is doing much in developing an appreciation of the theater at Senior High School. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Jacqueline Johnson, this club has as its main objective the establishing and advancing of standards of excellence in all phases of dramatics.

The past year has proven one of the most active in the history of the club. Their many activities for the year included their annual pep session, which this year preceded the Madison game, and the presentation of a Christmas play. This play, called "A Merry Christmas", contained a cast of sixteen members of the club and was given through the facilities of the school radio station, WNAS-FM.

But one of their most notable achievements in 1949-50 was the establishment of a permanent costume wardrobe. The members were constantly rummaging through attics, cellars, and closets in search of valuable additions to their project. The wardrobe, which is Speech Department owned, will be constantly enlarged until it contains costumes of all periods and for every type of play.

Working in close cooperation with the Speech Department, the club actively assisted in the production of the two three-act plays, "Date With Judy", on November 17-18, and "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" on March 23-24. The Senior Class play, "The Man Who came to Dinner," which was presented late this spring, also received assistance from them.

Through their participation in varied activities of a dramatic nature, Thespians are furthering their goal of creating an active and intelligent interest in dramatic arts around NAHS.

In 1945, Thespian Troup 624 was organized at New Albany Senior High School. A member of the National Thespian Society, Troup 624 accepts for membership those students who have earned the required ten points through participation in some phase of play production, public speaking, or radio. To retain membership, ten points must be earned each year.

One may become a star Thespian after accumulating twenty points, and with each additional ten points may become a two point, three point, or honor Thespian.

As a Junior Actor one has an opportunity to prepare himself for his role on the dramatic stage, earn Thespian points, gain poise in public, and practice radio broadcasting.

Experience in acting was gained this year by giving a one act play, "Indiana Giver," in March as an assembly for freshmen and sophomores. The cast included Lodema Taylor, Marjorie Hisey, Mary Helen McIntosh, Connie Manus, Phyllis McHone, Joyce Watkins, Dean Miller and Kent Trinkle.

Junior Actors also presented a Christmas radio play, "Virginia's Letter to Santa Claus," over radio station WNAS-FM. This cast was made up of members Don Miller, Dean Miller, Kenneth McClure, David Brinkworth, Charles Henninger, Joyce Watkins, Phyllis McHone, Jo Ann Fulkerson, Lodema Taylor, and Mary Helen McIntosh.

Curtain's Going Up

The Freshman Dramatics Club was first organized in 1948 with the purpose of giving freshmen students a chance to appear in dramatic presentations. The objective of the club is to prepare its members for membership in the Thespian Club.

Meeting once each week, club members utilized their meetings by reading and discussing plays, studying make-up technique, and rehearsing the plays they presented as special assemblies.

Besides the two dramatic productions given by the club, their special activities included a candy sale during the second semester. Members closed their club year with a picnic party during the latter part of May.

During the first semester of the school year, the club presented the play, "Thanks Awfully," by Jean Latham for a special freshman-sophomore assembly. Members of the club who comprised the cast were: John Wells, Mary Chris Koch, Judith Bocard, Marilyn Clark, Donna Clark, Marilyn Thomas, Georgann Rasmussen, Jo Ann Schell, Jeanette Little, Barbara McHone, Virginia Long, Yvonne Motsinger, and Lois Heldman.

The club presented a mystery play, "The Opening of a Door," written by Wall Spence, for a special assembly during the second semester. Virginia Pleiss gave the introduction to the play. The cast included: Martine Cord, Yvonne Motsinger, James Weber, Jeanette Little, and Mary Chris Koch.

Officers of the club were elected twice during the year. First semester officers were Doris Hart, president; Don Bayle, vice-president; Mary Chris Koch, secretary; and Martine Cord, treasurer.

Best Sellers

The main purpose of the Senior Distributive Education Club is to develop progressive, respected, and successful leadership in retailing. It also helps students make an intelligent choice of careers in the retailing field so that their abilities may be used to the greatest advantage. Too, they assist, constructively, in carrying out the local school program of distributive education.

The objectives of the club are to show the advantages of vocational training in distributive education and to promote distributive education.

The club headed the Polio Emergency Drive in high school, sponsored a radio program over WNAS and toured the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times newspaper plant in Louisville, Kentucky. On the social side, they had a hayride to Henryville, an Employer-Employee Banquet, and the Spring Formal Dance. They helped boost our team and their treasury by selling basketball team pictures.

The club sent Rozella Taylor, Kenneth Stiller, and Richard Pennington to the State Convention at Indiana University. Janet Dillow, Gladys Lamb, Rozella Taylor, Richard Pennington, and Kenneth Stiller were delegates to the National Distributive Education Convention in April at Ashville, North Carolina. At the national convention Rozella was elected vice-president in charge of membership for the national organization.

The Senior Distributive Education Club is a member of the state and national organizations for daytime co-operative students in the retailing field. This is the club's third year at New Albany Senior High School and it is sponsored by Mr. Maurice L. Miltenberger.

The officers are: Richard Pennington, president; Rozella Taylor, vice-president; Nancy Condra, secretary; Judith Peck, treasurer; Kenneth Stiller, reporter; and Jack Schell, historian.

Discussing plans for the club's trip to the national convention are (seated) Nancy Condra, Richard Pennington, (standing) Kenneth Stiller, Judith Peck, Jack Schell, and Rozella Taylor.

Birth Of A Salesman

Building future retailers, making better salespeople, and giving better service to the public are the objectives of the Junior Distributive Education Club. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Maurice L. Miltenberger, members discuss all phases of retailing during their club periods.

The local chapter of Junior Distributors was organized in September 1948, as a member of both the Distributive Education Clubs of America and of Indiana.

At the beginning of the school year a field trip was taken to the New Albany tobacco warehouse so that members could observe a tobacco auction sale. Later in the year another trip was made to downtown New Albany in order that students might observe various examples of window displays.

On the social side, the club enjoyed a hayride and wiener roast at the Georgetown Conservation Club. At Christmas time, members held a dinner at Woolworth Cafeteria where they exchanged gifts; and in the spring, they joined with the Senior Distributors for a formal dance at the New Albany Country Club.

In order to raise money for the club, they had pastry sales, sold candy at basketball games, and sold basketball novelties.

Three members of the club attended the state meeting of Distributive Education clubs at Indiana University in January. Those elected to represent the New Albany club were Evelyn Craycroft, Joyce Ferguson, and Patricia Hartman.

The club officers were Evelyn Craycroft, president; Joyce Ferguson, vice-president; Mary Margaret Bauer, secretary; and Joan Whitaker, treasurer.

Crops, Cows, And Conservation

Development of agricultural leadership, co-operation, and citizenship are the goals of the Future Farmers of America.

Although the New Albany Senior High School chapter is only two years old, organized in 1948 by Mr. Warren Mitchell, the national organization of Future Farmers was organized in 1928. The first Future Farmers of America was patterned after the Future Farmers of Virginia, a club organized by vocational agriculture students in the state of Virginia.

Membership of the club is open to boys taking vocational agriculture in school. Activities for the year included an intramural basketball team, a farm service public speaking contest, a scrap metal drive, project tours, and radio programs every Saturday morning over radio station WLRP. Other activities were productive project contests and participation in state and district agriculture contests.

The officers for the year were James Didelot, president; Samuel Shine, vice-president; Phillip Hart, secretary; William Alstott, treasurer; Walter Townsend, reporter; and Thurman Conrad, sentinel. The club sponsor is Mr. Warren Mitchell.

Homemakers Of The Future

The Future Homemakers of America, formerly the Minerva Club which provided the Minerva Lounge and presented the pictures in the rooms and halls of the school, is sponsored by Mrs. Judith Grigsby. Its purpose is to create better home and community life. Last year the club became a member of the national organization of Future Homemakers of America.

During the year the club had many activities such as the formal initiation in November, candy sales, sale of basketball schedule pencils, and cake sales. They also attended district meetings, gave the annual Christmas Tea for the faculty, and sponsored a Mother-Daughter Party in March.

The highlight of this past year was a district meeting of Future Homemakers at NAHS in March.

The officers were as follows: president, Joanne Combs; vice-president, Mayme Hurt; secretary, Cathleen Hardman; treasurer, Twyla Henn; parliamentarian, Joyce Jensen; historian, Doris Williams; and reporter, Mary Decker. Lois Singleton was secretary and treasurer of the state organization of Future Homemakers of America.

Definitely The Executive Type

The Future Business Leaders of America, under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Wampler, is composed of commercial majors, to whom the club offers an opportunity to prepare for employment, to develop personality, and to help members understand the business opportunities of the community.

The club was organized in New Albany Senior High school during the second semester of the school year 1948-49, became a charter member of the national organization in March, 1949, and is Chapter 237.

In charge of the Future Business Leaders of America initiation were Juanita Banet, Faye Wismann, Mrs. Patricia Diedrich, Marisue Endicott, Mrs. Kathryn Ellis, and Catherine Thomas.

During the school year 1949-50, a survey was made of New Albany business firms to find the types of offices positions available for student or graduate employees.

The most important activities of the club were the initiation dinner at the American Legion Home, January 19, and field trips to various business places.

The officers for the year were: president, Fay Wismann; vice-president, Marisue Endicott; secretary, Juanita Banet; and treasurer, Catherine Thomas.

Evelyn Harrison and Norma Broadus interview Mr. John Vernia in regard to the type of office position he might have available to be filled by a student employee. Compilation of the business firm survey is made by Norma Badger, Miss Elizabeth Wampler and Loretta King.

In The Footsteps Of Caesar

Guided by Mrs. Evelyn Simms, members of the Junior Classical League strive to develop and maintain interest in classical learning, as well as to develop an appreciation and understanding of other nations.

Organized in February of 1939, it is a branch of the National Junior Classical Leagues. Among its objectives are the studying of Roman and Greek mythology and enjoying Latin songs and games.

Unlike our other clubs, the officers are of Roman nature and each officer has a Latin title. The past year these included: Consuls, David Allgood, Mary Ann Marguet; Quaestor, Patricia Carper; Scriptor, Betty Brooks; Praetor, Verna Tripure; Aediles, Margaret Marguet, Earl Wenzler, Joan Riddle, Joyce Sieveking.

A full-time program gave the members little time for other thoughts. Among these activities were Latin Week programs, initiation, and assisting at the District Latin Contest. Each year representatives are sent to Bloomington to the State Latin Contest.

As an additional feature, members sold candy at the Jasper and Seymour basketball games, but their favorite pastime was designing and making Roman costumes.

The most inspirational activity was the traditional Roman Banquet which was held April 21.

Presiding at the J. C. L. initiation service were: ROW ONE: Verna Tripure, Richard Wilson, Margaret Marguet, Edna Adams, Phillip Jones, Mary Jo Regot. Comment Allez-vous, Mes Amis

"Parlez-vous Francais? Oui, je parle Francais," is a familiar phrase to those students who are members of the French Club. The club was reorganized this year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irma Pritz.

The purpose of the club is to develop interest in the culture of France and a love for the French language.

It is hard to put your finger on just what highlighted the activities of the French Club this year. They had the special La Fete des Rois (Twelfth Night) Celebration, Valentine and Mardi Gras parties, and a theater party to see a French movie. A spring promenade was also enjoyed by members of the club.

Making French provincial costumes was one of their projects along with collecting pictures of France. Practising folk songs and dances kept them quite busy.

During their initiation, members were not allowed to speak a word of English and were required to wear French costumes the entire school day.

The objectives of the club are "By French folk songs and dances we strive to improve our ability to speak and understand the language and to increase our knowledge of the country and the customs of the country."

Theories And Test Tubes

To provide an opportunity for student development in science outside the textbook is the principal purpose of the New Albany High School Science Club.

The Science Club, reorganized in 1948 in the Science department by Mr. Lawrence S. Rose, is affiliated with the Science Clubs of America, a national organization.

The club constitution requires that each member in the club must have had at least one semester of science before joining.

The club operates under a system of rotating chairman. Each week the member responsible for the program conducts the meeting. Unlike many of the clubs, the Science Club holds two meetings each week, one on Tuesday and one on Thursday.

During the year, the Science Club members made trips to the Gunnison plant, New Albany, Aetna Refining Company, Standard Sanitary Company, U. S. Weather Bureau, United Television Laboratories and the International Harvester Plant, Louisville, Kentucky, and Fort Knox.

Each year members try for the many scholarships and cash prizes awarded in the science field. This year William Morgan participated in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild Contest. Last year William won a $100 prize for his model car body.

Into The Wild Yonder

To study and understand elementary aeronautics is the two-fold purpose of the Aeronautics Club. The club also gives its members opportunity to present talks and lead discussions on topics of interest to them in the Field of Aeronautics.

This year the club combined with the Junior Aeronautics Club and weekly meetings were held every Thursday.

Great interest was taken in special projects related to aviation. Programs were set aside during which various members reported on subjects pertaining to all phases of aviation. Numerous talks were given on aerial safety and recent developments in the field of aeronautics.

Students had the opportunity to inspect scale model engines as well as assembling and studying an actual airplane motor.

Officers for the year were: Raymond Potts, president; Ralph Powell, vice-president; Conrad Ringley, secretary; and Lawrence Dillman, treasurer. Mr. Max Wiesman is the club sponsor.

Figures Don't Lie

When it comes to naming the most active club, literally, the Girls Athletic Association would rank first. The club boasts a membership with the Indiana League of High School Girls Athletic Associations.

With the assistance of their sponsor, Miss Virginia Young, the members strive to promote athletics for girls. A well-rounded program of sports was enacted at the meetings in which basketball, tumbling, volleyball, and ping-pong headed their list of favorites. During the greener parts of the year, softball, track, and field sports replaced the indoor sports. Picnics and swimming were bracketed special activities.

The first club meeting was officially opened with a picnic on Floyd Knobs. Games were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Each Tuesday afternoon after school the girls played basketball in the girls' gymnasium. No different from any other club, annual projects were given much consideration. This year the girls participated in a ping-pong tournament which was held in March.

The members were headed by an executive council which included: Marilyn Prather, Marlene Peay, Carol Sands, Joan Brooks, and Miss Virginia Young, club sponsor.

Swing Your Partner

To promote better social relationships among students of New Albany Senior High School is the purpose for which the Games Club was reorganized in 1948 under the joint sponsorship of Miss Virginia Young and Mr. Howard Hundemer.

Even though the entire club period was a social hour, the club meetings which were held on Tuesday were carefully planned in advance to further the initial purpose of the club.

No officers were elected in compliance with the club's constitution; however, members of the club worked as a group in the planning and participation of the games and dances.

Limited to forty freshman and sophomore students, the Games Club gives its members instruction and practise in performing ballroom and folk dancing. Members combine pleasure and learning, for the club strives constantly to improve the dancing habits of its members.

Each club period was devoted to two or more of the different activities enjoyed most by the club members. Group singing and ballroom dancing held equal rank as favorites of club members; although, this past year instruction in square dancing added this form of dancing to the rapidly growing list of club favorites.

Set 'em Up

The alley lights were clicked on, the first balls rushed down the alleys, and the regular Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday afternoon bowling leagues began their weekly sessions.

Bowling is one of NAHS's favorite indoor sports indulged in by both boys and girls. The league was organized in 1946 by Mr. Floyd Henry and the teams bowl at the Pearl-Oak Alleys. Its purpose is to provide a healthful and beneficial form of recreation for boys and girls. It also provides a leisure time activity.

Each team had a sponsor—some business person in town—who backed the team and sometimes gave its members bowling shirts. Also, each league had its own officers: president, secretary, and treasurer.

The league members, all from Senior High, bowled in the Christmas Holiday Tournament and also in the National Telegraphic Bowling Tournament in March. One of the biggest highlights of the year was the annual banquet at the end of the season, at which all the members and sponsors were present. The awards, medals, and trophies were presented at that time.

Dead Eye Dicks

Members of the Junior Rifle Club enjoy a sport that requires patience and skill, and rifle shooting is a favorite with high school students interested in creating a life long hobby.

The Junior Rifle Club of New Albany is affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America and, as such, is allowed to enter in their National Matches. Shooters participate in inter-school matches, national postal matches, and shoulder to shoulder tournaments.

The purpose of the club is to promote marksmanship, sportsmanship, and safety training with firearms. It is imperative that members have good eyesight and good mental training.

Last year Frank Stamper tied for third place in the National Champion Match, and the New Albany team, as a whole, placed tenth in the Non-Military Scholastic Rank.

The club had its weekly business meeting on Tuesday, and night meetings on Tuesdays and Thursdays. At the night meetings, the members learned about rifles and techniques for shooting. During business meetings the club discussed hunting methods and stories.

This year New Albany had the honor of playing host to the National Junior Sectional Match and the Indiana State Champion Match, both on March 11.

Bulldog Backers

"Would you like to buy a pillow?" Many avid basketball fans of New Albany heard this question many times before the 1949-1950 basketball season was over. The Senior Boosters, in order to raise money, sold plastic pillows at all home basketball games. Red ties were also sold with "state" in big letters on them.

The aim of the club is to boost all school activities and to develop good school spirit. The membership of the club is composed of 150 junior and senior girls, who can always be identified at all home games by their block "N".

Not to be outdone by the social clubs in school, the Boosters had many social activities. They chartered a special bus to Madison for the New Albany-Madison game. During the month of February, a valentine's party was held at the Catholic Community Cellar. The Boosters had their annual Basketball Dinner for the team after the basketball season was completed.

Minnie Phillips served as president of the club, ably assisted by Barbara Lancaster as vice-president, Paula Lewis as secretary, and Mary Margaret Bauer as treasurer. The club sponsors are Miss Alma Fischer and Mr. Stanley Sajko.

Your Sportsmanship Is Showing

"Come on, Boosters, yell some more" is the motto of the Junior Boosters, a club for freshman and sophomore girls who are interested in all phases of sports offered at New Albany Senior High School.

To boost all school activities and to promote better sportsmanship at all games are the purposes of the club. The club, under the able leadership of Jolene Daily as president, has been very active in school functions. Members also sponsored a pep session before the Jasper-New Albany basketball game.

Many social activities were enjoyed by the club. The highlight of these was during the spring semester when a picnic was held at Spring Mill State Park. Problems of money were met by having a very successful pastry sale.

Other officers of the club were: Joyce Kaiser, vice-president; Cara Lynn Rhoads, secretary; and Carolyn Radcliff, treasurer. Second semester officers were: Donna Lee, president; Joyce Kaiser, vice-president; Mary Bensing, secretary; and Donna Foster, treasurer. Club sponsors are Miss Kathryn Ellis and Mr. Warren Hoover.

Blood, Sweat And Cheers

The New Albany Bulldogs got off to a bad start by dropping their first football game to the Flaget Braves from Louisville, Kentucky. Flager smashed through the inexperienced Bulldog team which just couldn't seem to get its offense moving. The final score: Flaget 27, New Albany 0.

The Bloomington Panthers didn't help the Bulldogs' morale any when they scored a 20 to 0 victory over New Albany. New Albany, however, showed much improvement over its first game as the Bulldog line held the Panthers throughout the game. Outstanding for the Bulldogs was the playing of their co-captains, Jim Jenkins and Phil Hart.

New Albany received its third straight defeat of the season when the Bosse Bulldogs of Evansville punched over two touchdowns and an extra point to down the Bulldogs, 13 to 0. Dick Riely, Bulldog halfback, averaged 7 yards a try.

Scoring for the first time in the season, the New Albany Bulldogs romped over the Seymour Owls, 40 to 0. After being held scoreless for three games, the Bulldogs had touchdown fever as Dick Riely, Bob Clayton, Joe Burke, Joe Marguet, Ed Watt and Carl Anderson crossed pay dirt. Jim Jenkins added the four extra points.

The Bulldogs came back again the next Friday to swamp the Red Devils of Jeffersonville, 25 to 6. New Albany's hard running backs looked good but it was such linemen as Ivan Anderson, Quentin Clay, Dick McClaren, Bob Schmitt, and Phil Hart that really sparked the Bulldogs' play.

Slipping and sliding, the canines slid right by the Vincennes Alices, 12 to 0. Although the Bulldogs' junior end, Jim Zeller, didn't score, he was instrumental in the scoring of both touchdowns.

The New Albany Bulldogs struck twice in the second quarter as they defeated the Booneville Pioneers, 14 to 0, for their fourth straight victory of the season. Jim Jenkins, with his invincible toe, made both extra points. Bob Smithers, a canine substitute, circled left end fifty-five yards for the longest run of the evening.

Scoring five times in the first half and then coasting the rest of the way, the Central of Evansville Bears rolled over the Bulldogs, 37 to 14. This game ended the four game winning streak of New Albany.

The Bulldogs' last game of the season turned out to be a heartbreaker as the St. Xavier Tigers won 18 to 13 with a last minute desperation drive. Ed Watt, a Bulldog reserve back, didn't seem to know there were St. X. men on the field, as he drove, spun away, and side-stepped his way for New Albany's two touchdowns.

But they will be ably replaced by co-captains Dick Riely and Bob Smithers, and a host of other griders including Ed Watt, Jim Butner, Lee Henry, Pat Burke, Chas. Hunter, Keith Goodwin, Buddy Kraft, Jim Zeller, Don Everdon, Carl Anderson, Buddy Webb, and Don Yeager. So with such formidable returning veterans as these, the New Albany Bulldogs look forward to the 1950-51 season.

Our Greatest Year

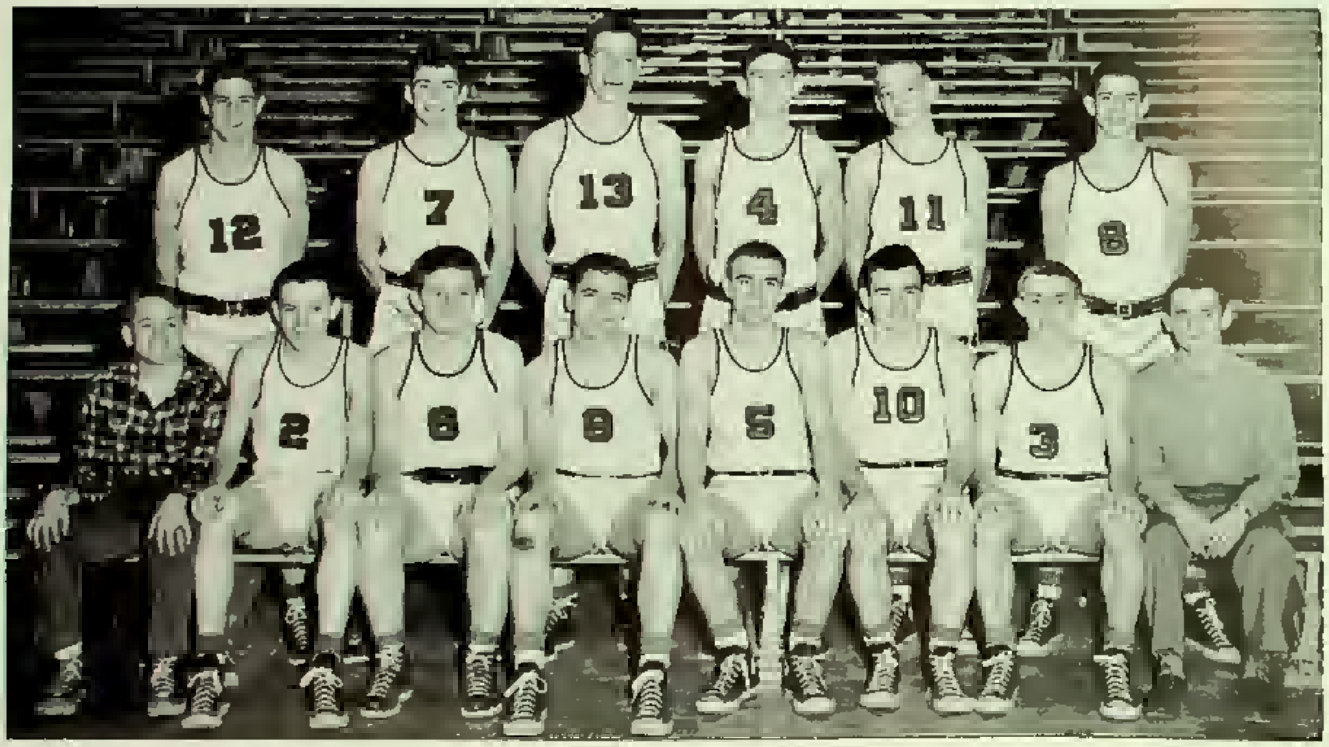
One of the dreams of New Albany sport fans finally came true this year when the Bulldogs reached the finals of the IHSAA basketball tournament at Butler Fieldhouse. The Bulldogs won their thirteenth sectional, their seventh regional, and their first semi-final to reach the final "4".

The canines had the best season record in the history of the school by winning eighteen games and losing two. They lost only to Madison, the 1950 state champs, and Jefferson of Lafayette in a holiday tourney.

The Bulldogs won nine straight SIAC games but Central of Evansville copped the conference title on the point system. The dogs beat Central in a conference game during the season; however, they were handicapped by the fact that they did not play enough SIAC conference games to receive the required number of points for conference championship. This past season marked the first time that a New Albany team had defeated all four Evansville schools in the regular playing season.

The dogs defeated the Silver Creek Dragons in the final game of the Sectional Tourney held in the New Albany gym. Bob Clayton led the team to its thirteenth sectional championship with a twenty point total in his final appearance in the local gym. Don Loughmiller played one of the best defensive games of his career. Our boys reached the Sectional finals by defeating the Georgetown quintet, 61-23, in the semi-final tourney game.

Coach C. Gordon Raney and Floyd Henry, assistant coach, smile over the Team's record.



FIRST ROW: Frank Lorch, William White, Donald Loughmiller, James Jenkins, Lee Henry, Allen Schaffer, Edward Siegel, Merle Harrison.

When they defeated the Winslow Eskimos, 52-36, in the final game, the Bulldogs won their first Semi-final Tourney. Paul Poff and Bob Clayton were the standouts for the Bulldogs in their win. Paul put the finishing touches on the game with two baskets in the closing seconds of the fourth quarter.

In the afternoon encounter the dogs had belted the Ellettsville Eagles, 56-42. Bob Clayton led the scoring parade with 22 points. Three New Albany boys were chosen for the all-tourney team; these were Paul Poff, Bob Clayton, and Eddie Glover.

After the season was over the NAHS team was feted often and members acquired numerous awards: Paul Poff was on many of the all-state teams and received the high point man award for the season. Don Loughmiller was the winner of the most progressive award and also mentioned for the SIAC all-conference team. Eddie Glover won the Mel Brewer free throw award with a .680 percentage for thte season. Bob Clayton received the sportsmanship trophy, was on some of the all-state teams and made all the all-tourney teams for the state finals. Bob, also received the most valuable player award for the SIAC conference.

Next In Line

The 1949-50 edition of the New Albany Pups went undefeated in 13 starts for the first time in years. In his second year as assistant basketball coach, Mr. Floyd Henry gave the Pups their only unblemished record in interscholastic sports.

During the basketball season the Pups played the first game of the evenings with the visiting school's team. Some of these games were with Madison, Seymour, Bedford, Jasper, Washington, and Howe of Indianapolis.

The Pups are a silver lining to Coach C. Gordon Raney for many of them will move into his varsity next season.

The Freshmen Team did not enjoy a successful season as far as the won and lost column was concerned, but they gained valuable experience by playing in the SIAC Freshmen Tourney and their regular season games.

On Your Mark

Cross-country was inaugarated at NAHS during the fall semester this year. The team, coached by Mr. Floyd Henry, was very successful and went to state its first year.

In their first appearance of the year, the Bulldog thinlies defeated Scribner, 45-17, on the Country Club course. Eddie Siegel beat-out Don Belcher for top honors in a hard-fought stretch drive.

The next meet on the schedule brought the team against the Bloomington Panthers and their first loss of the season. The first Bulldog harrier in this meet was Don Belcher who placed second. Don was followed by Eddie Siegel, Bill White, and Don Haas.

After their loss to Bloomington, the team returned home to meet Silver Creek, whom they defeated very easily. This was their turn-up meet for the SIAC conference.

New Albany placed sixth in the SIAC conference meet held at Vincennes. Don Belcher placed sixth and Bill White came in tenth to fulfill the Bulldogs' hopes for a place in the meet.

The following week the Bulldogs returned to Vincennes to participate in the Sectional where they placed second and qualified for the state meet. Eddie Siegel placed sixth; Don Belcher, eighth; and Bill White, tenth, to lead the New Albany scoring.

Donald Everdon breaks the tape during the spring season track meet.

The cross-country team finished seventeenth in the State cross-country meet at Indianapolis. Bill White led the Bulldog harriers as he came in forty-third in front of Eddie Siegel and Don Belcher.

The NAHS team completed their season with a record of two and one in dual meets, placed sixth in the Conference, and second in the Sectional.

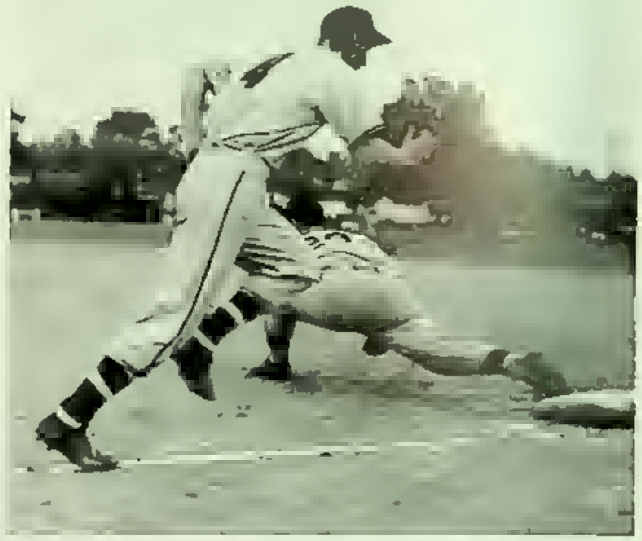
Over The Fence

The New Albany Bulldogs opened their baseball season with the Charlestown team. It was a successful beginning for James Deatrick held the Pirates to three runs, while the Bulldogs collected nineteen.

The New Albany team then dropped their next five games to Manual High School, Valley High School, Flaget High School, Jeffersonville High School, and St. Xavier High School. After the St. Xavier game the team's luck changed and they defeated Kentucky Military Institute, 7-1, for their second victory of the season.

This game seemed to be the turning point for the Bulldogs then defeated Valley High School, 6-3; Male High School, 14-1; and Kentucky Military Institute, 5-1; in the final games of the season.

James Deatrick was the leading hurler with three wins and three defeats; while Jack Hosbach collected two and lost two. The Bulldogs ended their season with a total of five games won and an equal number lost.



Paul Poff lands safely on third.

Par Four

The 1949 golf team, coached by Mr. Floyd Henry, consisted of five students; Elliott Phillips, Robert Eve, John Jenks, Walter Schulz, and Robert Douglas.

Elliott Phillips was top man on the team and led the team in a very successful season with a record of winning six and losing only one match. The team defeated St. Xavier, Manual, and Flaget high schools of Louisville, Kentucky. They played and defeated Anchorage High School, Anchorage, Kentucky, twice during the season. The team's only defeat during the regular season was at the hands of the Bedford team, whom they played twice and defeated only once.

During the SIAC meet at Bedford, the New Albany team placed fourth in a field of nineteen. Reitz High School of Evansville went off with top honors in the meet.

Members of the team participated in the sectional golf meet at Bedford, Indiana and came in fourth place out of a field of twelve teams. Reitz, again, took top honors.

In the sectional match, Elliott Phillips scored a bright spot for the team by placing as one of the three participants with the lowest scores for the match. This gave Elliott the opportunity to represent New Albany in the State Meet at Indianapolis; and from the field of approximately two hundred high school golfers from all over Indiana, Elliott placed fifth.

Walter Schulz tees off the sixth green at the Valley View Country Club course.

Young People Will Tell You - Reisz Is A Good Store To Know!

Young couples — and older couples learn that Reisz is a good store to know — whether you are furnishing your first home on a limited budget — or redecorating your larger home more lavishly. We give every customer our undivided personal attention. You — and your home — and happiness are very important to us.

CONGRATULATIONS!

We congratulate the class of 1950 on your fine spirit and accomplishments. We are glad to be represented in your personal copy of this year's SENIOR BLOTTER. It is a fine publication.

HELP PROTECT YOUR PRECIOUS EYESIGHT WITH RIGHT LIGHT!

There's no need for any student to falter in his school work BECAUSE OF POOR LIGHTING AT HOME. For only pennies, every modern family can enjoy A-1, glare-free lighting — with right-sized bulbs for every seeing task.

Not only school work, but hobbying, reading and even games require proper light if eyestrain is to be avoided. And it must be avoided by young and old alike. The risk is too great to take a chance on permanent eye injury.

If you're not sure about your lighting, check up today. Then see your dealer for right-sized bulbs and glare-free lighting fixtures.
